REPORTING SCOPE

Reporting is a process aimed at analyzing and monitoring the company's impact on the environment, in accordance with the adopted principles and indicators.

PREPARATION	OUTREACH	DEFINING SCOPE AND INDICATORS	DATA COLLECTION	REPORTING
determining priority aspects, preparations to the process	inviting employees and other stakeholders to consult on the report	determining the list of indicators and areas to be covered by the report	collecting data to be included in the report	developing final version of the report and communication